

Vishnu's avatar who came down on earth to destroy Ravana for all that is worth

The demon called Ravana tricked all the gods nodding, well now I am going to destroy the world at odds,

And now, the gods found out, and of course because they were gods, they couldn't sit there and pout!

So Vishnu's avatar Rama, kind of used samsara to follow his dharma to hope to go in a good place in Karma

When Rama grew up, Queen Kaikeyi refused to let Rama be king, so she exiled him for 14 years passing all the seasons starting from spring,

So Rama took his wife and brother to go live in the woods, and maybe walked to a store and picked up goods

When Rama's father got heart broken and died, Rama acted tough but soon he cried

And he promised that he would never go back to the kingdom to keep his promise and come back 14 years seldomly.

One day, the princess saw a golden beautiful deer that made her head clear, and she said "Rama get that deer for me and bring the deer in some way!"

And Rama followed his Dharma and said "Okay, I will be back before May!"

Rama's brother kept the princess safe by being with her and protecting her, but the deer was in fact Rama, and he cried help in Rama's voice and the Princess said pleer!!!!

Rama's brother! Go help Rama!
But.... "Go now!" okay! I will follow my dharma

Rama's brother drew a circle and said to the Princess do go out!
And the princess said okay but failed to do so and pouted at the end!

The deer changed back into a brahman and asked for food to pursue
And the princess forgot about the circle and wasn't very rude.

He then took the princess and got away
But the brothers found the princess after a journey and never betrayed

And then they went back to the kingdom and felt the freedom.
